RULE FOCUS

Did you know?

Good day all.

We had a nice full field at Knysna on the Sunday 24th of March and it was good to see quite a few visiting Nomads and guests attending the game.

Nationals is done and dusted and although we did not had a good tournament-everybody enjoyed it a lot. Congratulations to Malcolm Hyman on winning the top spot in Southern Cape with some excellent rounds-especially on his first Nationals!!

I also want to congratulate Northerns on putting together a great tournament.

Our next game is on the 21st of April at Pinnacle Point and we will also be having our AGM so I urge you to attend that game as we need to be selecting our new Office Bearers.

I also want to thank Nick Nieman for the good work he has done the past two years as JVC and VC. Unfortunately, Nick decided to resign as Vice-Captain as he need to focus on his business and family obligations and I would like to wish him well with that. He will still be a loyal Nomad and continue with us in the Southern Cape.

See you all at Pinnacle Point!!!

Yours in Nomads,
Tjoepie

Captain Tjoepie Pretorius

The end of February into March, the professionals played the SDC Championship at St Francis Links and the winner was Jordan Gumberg after Robin Williams stumbled at the 17th hole to force a playoff.

This was followed by the Jonsson Workwear Open at Glendower Golf Club. Matteo Manassero claimed a fairytale win in the dark with a late weather delay putting the finish of the Sunshine Tour co-sanctioned tournament in doubt, play resumed at 18:00 and Manassero completed a finish of four straight birdies for a 66 and a three-stroke victory on 26 under par.
